“The perfect crime scene»

That was the exact idea for the script of the video for Aquamarine residential complex of Unistroy construction company.

The story is told in a classic American detective style, where the detective arrives at the "crime scene". But what are the police looking for?

Animated video for Deloitte

A strong company is similar to a tree

Deloitte is world's largest consulting and auditing organization. We were inspired by the long history of the company, which gave the idea of a tree metaphor.

Our team of professionals implemented the idea in 2 months, which is considered shortest possible time for the project of such scale.

Image video about the fight against myopia

How to show the world through the eyes of a short-sighted person?

How can we demonstrate the impact of myopia on our lives through ordinary actions familiar to everyone?

Those were the questions we asked ourselves while creating the video for Cooper Vision.

City rising from the void

Through this message we intended to reflect the speed of development and the emergence of new residential complexes by the Unistroy company.

The yesterday's flatlands have become spacious quarters with a bustling life today.

Perfect «Imperfects»

People who feel. People who make mistakes but get better. People who overcome obstacles and move only forward. Such people can be entrusted with anything - even the construction of your future home.
